

Olivet Nazarene University

Digital Commons @ Olivet

The Kankakee Daily Journal

University Archives

3-3-1930

March 03, 1930 (Monday) Kankakee Daily Republican

Kankakee Daily Journal

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.olivet.edu/dj>

Recommended Citation

Kankakee Daily Journal, "March 03, 1930 (Monday) Kankakee Daily Republican" (1930). The Kankakee Daily Journal. 1514.

<https://digitalcommons.olivet.edu/dj/1514>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Digital Commons @ Olivet. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Kankakee Daily Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Olivet. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@olivet.edu.

Mostly fair tonight and Tuesday;
decided change in temperature.

News OF THE Day IN Pictures

ures

HEALTHIEST BOY AND GIRL VISIT

Associated Press Photo

Harold Deatline of Martinville, Ind., and Florence Smock of Eustis, Fla., adjudged the nation's healthiest boy and girl in national club contest in Chicago, met when Deatline attended community celebration at Eustis.

JAPANESE PRINCE AND PRINCESS

Associated Press Photo
Prince Takamatsu, younger brother of the emperor of Japan, and his wife, Princess Kiko, walking through a crowd.

daughter of the last shogun of Japan, in their wedding robes on day of their wedding.

Succeeds McGarrath

Bettens Record

AM
DS

J. H. Case, new chairman of board of New York Federal Reserve bank, succeeding Gates V. McGarrah, who takes part with bank for international settlements.

Husband Near Death

Associated Press

Running the 70-yard low
In eight seconds flat, Bel
New York University, better world's indoor record at the college invitation board games.

Confesses

Associated Press Photo

band after a short automobile ride.)

ARMORY — MARCH 4, 1930

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY
BELL SYSTEM
One Policy • One System • Universal Service

The first dose of California Fly Syrup relieves these symptoms and restores normal function. Successive doses help tone and strengthen weak bowels; improve appetite; encourage digestion and assimilation; try to rid the system of parasites; and combat a bilious, headachy, constipated child and see how it helps!

For more information, write or ordered by doctors for 50 years, always bears the name California. So look for it when buying.

THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS
EMPLOYING 160,000 professional musicians in the United States and Canada)
JOSPH M. WEBER, President, 1440 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Days to Advertise in The Daily Republic

Associated Press

There is an obvious note of optimism in the conversation between owner William Wrigley, Jr. (left), and Manager Joe McCahey as they talk over the baseball situation at the Cubs' spring training camp on Santa Catalina Island.

Federal prohibition agents uncovered 70,000 gallons of pot still-distilled mash on the edge of Chicago's loop when they raided a warehouse last night. The mash was valued at $50,000.

Veronica Curry, only daughter of John F. Curry, leader of many hall, became the bride of Edmund M. McCarthy, attorn Springfield, Mass. They are shown leaving St. Patrick's cath New York, after the ceremony.

Mrs. William Howard Taft returning to the bedside of her husband after a short automobile ride.

Kankakee Daily Republican

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Kankakee, Illinois, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

OWNED BY THE KANKAKEE REPUBLICAN CO.
Cotton and Plant: Corner North Schuyler Ave. and East Oak St.

LESLIE C. SMALL, Managing Editor

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use, for publication, of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news dispatches.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

Delivered by Carrier	Delivered by Mail
One week $1.00	One year $10.00
Two weeks $2.00	Six months $5.00
Three weeks $3.00	Three months $2.50
Four weeks $4.00	One month $1.00

Amount by Express, Money Order, Draft, Post Office or Registered Letter. Address all communications to The Kankakee Daily Republican

INLAND NEWSPAPER REPRESENTATIVES, Inc.
National Representatives
Chicago 613 Wabash Building New York 512 Fifth Avenue

REPUBLICAN TELEPHONES
Business Office: Main 9-10-11 Classified Ad Dept.: Main 9-10-11
ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE SERVICE

Circulation records open to all. Detailed analysis, in accordance with requirements of Audit Bureau of Circulations, upon request. Full investigation of methods, quality of circulation and distribution is invited.

NOTICE: REPUBLICAN SUBSCRIBERS

If you do not receive your paper every night, call Main 10 by 7:15 P. M. and a special messenger will deliver you a paper the same evening. This above phone number is for papers missed only.

Republican Candidates for Legislative and County Offices

Endorsed by the Kankakee County Republican Central Committee

Primary Election
Tuesday, April 8, 1930

For State Representative
20th Senatorial District
LUTHER B. BRATTON

For County Judge
HENRY F. RUEL

For County Clerk
O. A. BURDICK

For County Sheriff
L. B. ROGERS

For County Treasurer
ED. HORNICK

For County Superintendent of Schools
FRANK SALTZGIVER

Kankakee Township Election
Tuesday, April 1, 1930

For Supervisor
E. ROLLINS

For Assistant Supervisors
DELBERT U. SELLERS
J. B. MATTHEWS

For Town Clerk
S. J. BROSEAU

For Auditor
W. A. HUNTER

Chic Sale Wants New Rules For Prize Fights

Secordale, New York—I'll tell you about a technical point that was put to me today. The question was this: Just what is actually held in the Sharkey-Scott fight in Miami? It stumped me for a spell, but this being a reasonable question I have checked up. Here's how she works out: All that happened was that about 35,000 folks paid about $300,000 to see a fight between a man and a woman and sit down on hard seats and holler "boo".

As for me, I just sat at home in a comfortable chair and hollered "boo" at my radio. Didn't cost me a cent. And the radio didn't seem to mind. And the radio is started right off on "Happy Days Are Here Again." Now I ain't against prize fighting or any other clean amusement. But I'll tell you right now something's got to be done about the system. Maybe they could do without referees and, after a fight, let an umpire announce the winner after takin' a straw vote.

CHARLES "CHIC" SALE
(Copyright John F. Dillon Co.)

Kankakee History

MARCH 3, 1894
The city teacher and his wife were in the city of Kankakee, Ill., at the time of the fire. The following program was rendered:

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

England's Relations with the United States During Victoria's Reign
L. D. DUBOIS

Burgess' Bedtime Stories

By HERBERT PLUMMER

Washington—Just before Alexander P. Woodhouse died the other day on the Pacific coast, set out for Spain to be the country's ambassador at the court of Madrid, friends of his were gathered around him in the presence of royalty.

Above all things, he was told, never attempt to direct conversation. Simple listen politely, and utter only those remarks that you are sure will be appropriate.

He had not been in Madrid long before he found himself one evening talking with Queen Victoria.

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

SUNDOWN STORIES

WHITEFOOT KEEPS A SECRET

The secret you have guarded well, a careless tongue is to tell. —Whitefoot the Wood Mouse.

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse was a very comfortable winter. Yes, a mouse who did the other day on the Pacific coast, set out for Spain to be the country's ambassador at the court of Madrid, friends of his were gathered around him in the presence of royalty.

Above all things, he was told, never attempt to direct conversation. Simple listen politely, and utter only those remarks that you are sure will be appropriate.

He had not been in Madrid long before he found himself one evening talking with Queen Victoria.

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

"Your Majesty," he said, "I have forgotten his friends' advice. I have turned to you for help."

WHY WE DO IT

Why We Work

We work because we are forced by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

Except in rare cases we are poorly rewarded for our work. Most people regard it as a necessary evil, as a means to the end of getting the things they really want. Hence the tendency is to regard work as a drudgery and to whine as much as possible.

We are not satisfied with the bare necessities of life. We crave the luxuries and all that means, more money. We do not stop at material luxuries. We want the culture, education and culture of social approval and leadership among our fellows. And for all these things we must toil and sweat and fret and weary.

We work because we are driven by necessity. We work hard because we have many wants. The savage with his meager wants of food, shelter and clothing and a very primitive mind, does not seem to exert himself over much. He got along with a very modest amount of work, but as wants increased, the necessity for work increases in proportion until work becomes a habit. Then even though you remove the necessity the man keeps on working from the force of habit.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Infantile Paralysis

Infantile paralysis is a disease caused by a virus which enters the body through the mouth and nose. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months.

Infantile paralysis is a disease caused by a virus which enters the body through the mouth and nose. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months.

Infantile paralysis is a disease caused by a virus which enters the body through the mouth and nose. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months.

Infantile paralysis is a disease caused by a virus which enters the body through the mouth and nose. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months. It is a disease which attacks the nerves of the body, and is most common during the summer months.

</

Social ♦ Magazine Page ♦ Club Affairs ♦ Church Activities ♦ Lodge Amenities

being especially invited. The topics for discussion were selected after careful consideration of a number of questions which had been handed

Warras, Poland, March 3.—An entire wedding party of three persons including the bride and groom was drowned yesterday in Lake Barota in the Usti district when ice broke under the weight of their sleigh.

MUCH MYSTERY ABOUT SALE OF
VALUABLE NECKLACE

New York, March 8.—The Archduke Leopold of Austria, who has been in the city since his interest, occupied the center of today in the investigation of the sale of a valuable necklace.

promply, thus enabling those who wish to see the Cluaga club play. The Parish, Varsity and the Y. W. C. A. will be given thought at right angles at the Methodist Parish House.

-6-

Tuesday Bible Study Class
The Bible Study Class being held at the Y. W. C. A. will meet Tuesday, March 24, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a study of seven thirty, thus making it possible for the members to attend the band concert at the armory. Visitors are always welcome to attend this Bible Class.

News
Townsend's whereabouts is unknown since he left a hotel in Palm Beach, Fla. two weeks ago. The archduke said he was present when the necklace was sold and that the jeweler had promised to return the necklace when he removed the diamonds. He said he

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harrison of Chicago spent Sunday here visiting with the latter sister, Mrs. Paul Cappel, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Miedde Chenevix and children of 84. Anne spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chicago of East Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Meyer of Chicago Heights spent yesterday in Kankakee visiting with Mrs. Ida Cook and the E. E. Swope family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. McLaughlin, Mrs. R. McLaughlin of Kempton, Mrs. E. L. Oll of Redick were the necklace and sell it for $600.00 on the strength of its historic value and its publicity which has been given it.

Mrs. Victor Eisenmenger of M. Vernon, N. Y., appealed to District Attorney Thomas C. Crain, last night, explaining that the archduchess had not heard from him since the set of the necklace to him with power of sale.

Investigation revealed that he had disposed of it a month ago to Michael for $60.00 despite the fact that from out of town Saturday.

Miss Blanche Biroux spent Sunday in Monteno visiting with her

[illegible]

Mrs. E. L. Reeves and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and family spent Sunday in Chicago visiting with their daughter, Miss Frances Jones.

Feb. 26, but later postponed
March 6, the Bolshevik government of Russia is to send a delegation visiting its revolutionary program in our country seemingly without let or hindrance."

He said the riots which had occurred in New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburg and other industrial centers were preliminary to the world-wide demonstration to be held
March 6.

Washington, Mar. 2.—(AP).—After
Senator Wagner, Democrat, of New York, had the general

Judge Claire C. Edwards of the 17th judicial circuit submitted his resignation to the governor today be-port his family on the judicial salary. A special election will be necessary to fill his place for the rest of the term which expires in June, 1933.

His resignation was dated to take effect March 5.

Judge Edwards was appointed to the bench on Sept. 28, 1914, and was elected to the place three consecutive times without opposition, 1915, 1921 and 1927.

One of his cases of national prominence was the murder trial of "Red" via the murder trial of alarms on red scares and communist demonstrations," asserting they were attempting to divert attention from the real issue of unemployment.

LaFollette said Matthew Wolf, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, had circulated members of the congress with story from an alleged communist paper telling of a plot to assassinate President Hoover Thursday night, financed by the soviet.

He asserted the number and in Marion Lambert, Orpet was acquitted.

"This resignation is prompted solely by pressing need for help in my financial situation," Judge Edwards wrote to the governor. "My salary as judge of the circuit court is insufficient to properly provide for my family and at the same time enable me to give my children the educational advantages to which they are entitled."

He said he would take up private law practice in partnership with Ralph J. Dady.

Circuit judges throughout the state, except in Cook county, are paid $6,000 annually. In Cook county, the county board adds $7,000 more to their salaries, giving the Cook county circuit judges $13,000.

TAFT MIGHT LINGER FOR SOME TIME

UNLESS A SUDDEN CHANGE RESULTS FROM HEART TROUBLE

DECLARE PHYSICIANS

Tomorrow Will Be Twenty-First Anniversary Of His Inauguration

Washington, March 3.—(P)—William Howard Taft, regarded on the verge of death for days, may linger indefinitely unless a sudden change results from heart trouble which is one of the complications of his illness.

His physicians after a visit early today said he continued to take some nourishment; that his condition has improved slightly, and that unless a change developed from Arterio Sclerosis that "his span of life is indeterminate."

Despite this encouraging word, the first for some time, the doctors still felt the former president and chief justice was waging a hopeless fight that could end in but one way.

In view of the doctors' bulletin issued shortly before 10 a. m., it is seemed probable that Mr. Taft would live until tomorrow—the twenty-first anniversary of his inauguration as President of the United States when he was acclaimed by thousands who had gathered to watch him take the oath of high office and his journey as the first citizen from the capitol to the White House.

Today there was but little reminder of the pomp and splendor of that day more than a score of years ago. A lone policeman paced back and forth in front of the large mansion on Wyoming avenue, a chilly breeze from the Potomac swept over the lawn bending the tall cedars. But few passed the house and there were but few callers.

Except for the arrival of the day nurse the departure of his night attendant and the arrival of servants, the doctors were the first callers this morning. After their visit they issued the usual formal bulletin. It read:

"The former Chief Justice had a good night. He continues to take some nourishment. A few days ago his condition was very critical but he has slightly improved and unless some further sudden change occurs due to the Arterio Sclerosis his span of life for the present is indeterminate."

The bulletin was signed by Dr. Thomas A. Cletcher and Dr. Francis R. Hagner.

HISTORIC BUILDING IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Vandalia, Ill., Mar. 3.—(P)—The cupola of the old state capitol here was destroyed by fire yesterday, and the roof of the historic building was badly damaged.

A spark from a chimney is believed to have started the blaze. The fire was brought under control by firemen within an hour although firemen, Harry Wheeler, was overcome by smoke.

Vandalia is the old capital of Illinois. This structure was the third capital here, and was erected in 1838. After the capital was changed to Springfield in 1839, the building was used for a school and courthouse. Within its walls the second governor barred slavery. Chicago was granted its village charter in 1837, and Lincoln started his political career. The state bought the capitol in July, 1919, for $400,000 with the intention of restoring it and establishing a museum here.

IMPERIAL VALLEY SHAKEN BY QUAKES

Brawley, Cal., March 3.—(P)—Although it populace still was slightly nervous, Brawley went back on a business-as-usual basis today after cleaning up the debris left by a six day siege of earthquakes.

The quakers began last Tuesday and were felt throughout Imperial Valley, from Calexico, on the Mexican border, to Calipatria, near the Salton sea. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday slight quivers were reported, some of them felt only in the northern end of the valley, the center of which is here.

On Saturday at 3:47 p. m., the first major shock was experienced. It was centered here. Three other major tremors visited the same area during the night, and yesterday, in their wake, several smaller ones occurred, the last at 2 p. m.

City Engineer J. C. Park said the structural damage here would approximate $100,000.

The end of the year found about 2,000 miles of the German railroad system equipped with an electrical device which automatically applies the brakes.

Robinson Crusoe's island is for rent. The owners would prefer to lease it for ninety-nine years.

MOMENCE

Fourteen ladies of the Baptist church circle spent Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Landoc Mrs. Ray Hayden being the honored guests a social afternoon was spent after which refreshments served.

R. H. McKee has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. C. E. Thomas was a Kankakee shopper on Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Bright and Mrs. Clarence Forburger were callers at the Forburger home in the country on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Albert Johnson has returned from St. James Hospital, Chicago Heights to her home in the country after an operation.

Mr. Ralph Hardy while at his work at the brick yard had the misfortune to break a bone in his right arm on Wednesday, his many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. E. J. Reising had the misfortune to break his arm the first of the week while cranking a car. seems that broken bones are the epidemic now, this making three in this city the past week. It is to be hoped all recover their affliction soon.

Mr. Earnest Griffin of Grant Park was a business caller in this city Friday.

The Purple and White club met at the home of Mrs. Barsanti on Thursday evening and helped her to celebrate her birthday and gave her a very pleasant surprise, dainty refreshments were served and the evening was pleasantly spent in playing buncos. Mrs. J. Burton secured the first prize and Mrs. Elizabeth Richardson the second. The guests all wished Mrs. Barsanti many more such happy birthdays.

The following Past Noble Grand of Isabella Rebekah lodge met on Friday afternoon in the lodge hall and quitted. Mesdames Lightfoot, Minnie Sherwood, Elizabeth Wimmer, Elizabeth Storer, Anna Davis, Alice Davis, Opal Holmes, Neva Beachler, Elizabeth Richardson and Miss Campbell. The usual business being transacted and those who could remained for a pot luck supper at which time the famous Smith family of the Radio, was acted out in a very creditable manner and furnished much amusement for the company.

Isabella Rebekah lodge met in regular session on Friday evening with a good attendance. It was voted that the lodge work in conjunction with the Past Noble Grand club and serve the election day dinner in April the proceeds to go into the lodge treasury.

The beautiful spring weather of the past few days turned somewhat on Saturday and the wind blew up pretty cold which only verified the old tradition the March would come in like a lion and go out like a lamb, all are hoping this will prove true.

Miss Arta Bennett of Kankakee spent the week end in this city with relatives.

SEE AGREEMENT AS POSSIBILITY; U. S. AND JAPAN

London, March 3.—(P)—A tentative agreement between the United States and Japan on the Japanese demand for a seventy per cent ratio was said to be looming large as a possibility today.

Excellent progress was reported to have been made in conversations between Senator David A. Reed, American delegate, and Ambassador Matsudaira of the Japanese delegation.

These two old friends have been discussing the Japanese-American problems informally in private, and their talks will continue this week. It was understood the conversations have been along lines of exploration of the whole field of possibilities, especially the possible increase of Japan's ratio in submarines as compared with capital ships under the Washington treaty. They also are trying to devise some scheme whereby the date of laying down of cruisers by one country would control the right of the other country to construct additional cruisers.

The United States has now become prime mover in the negotiations with Japan while Great Britain, a waiting the outcome. The previous British negotiations with the Japanese extending two or three weeks are said to have resulted in a complete deadlock. The British are being kept informed of the progress of the American-Japanese conversations.

Meanwhile the experts' committee which has been considering the classification of special ships has reached an agreement and its report has gone to the printers.

Planes are keeping the radio busy. 22,125 radio messages were handled during December by thirteen stations alone.

Berlin now has special parking stands for taxi drivers who speak either English or French.

Most Nurses Use New Face Powder

MELLO-GLO, the new wonderful French Process Face Powder, is preferred by nurses because of its purity, and they say it does not make the skin dry and drawn. Stays on longer, keeps shine away, and is very beneficial to the complexion. You will love MELLO-GLO Face Powder. The Chicago Store, adv.

URGE REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS, NOT MERE LIMITATION

New York, March 3.—(P)—A cabled appeal, sent from this city by the foreign policy association over the signatures of 1,200 of the nation's most prominent men and women, was, in the hands of the American delegation at London today.

The message urged "reduction, not mere limitation" of armaments. The message said that the Kellogg-Briand peace compact outlawing war had been signed by all the participants in the parley and should guide the conferees.

The Message added the warning that the failure of the conference would have a calamitous effect on American public opinion.

3 MILLION DOLLAR FIRE; NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, March 3.—(P)—A river front fire of undetermined origin, which burned to death one man and injured 13 others, was brought under control early today after damaging a wharf, two ware-houses and a steamship Leonard Smith, warehouse supervisor, estimated the loss at $3,000,000.

The charred body of Joseph Ryan, 46, messman, of New Orleans, was found aboard the steamship Scantia of the Dixie Mediterranean Steamship Company, which drifted into midstream after the flames had severed its moorings.

The injured, all of whom were members of the crew or visitors from New Orleans, were trapped aboard the ship. Approximately 20,000 bales of cotton were destroyed and 100,000 damaged.

BELIEVE TARIFF WILL BE AGREEABLE

Washington, March 3.—(P)—Senator Capper, of Kansas, today indicated his belief that, in effect, the Democratic-Republican Independent coalition is writing a tariff bill which will be agreeable to President Hoover.

While the Senate began that it was hoped would be the final week's work on the measure which has occupied it just six months next Saturday, Capper said in a radio address, that "it is my belief that the Senate discussion and actions will result in tariff rates in line with President Hoover's program, this in spite of the fact that those rates, in the last analysis, will be written in great part by political enemies of the president."

Characterizing Mr. Hoover's first year as president as a "year of fact finding," the Kansas Republican asserted that "the policies followed, the programs laid down and initiated the actions taken by President Hoover so far, are along lines that will redound to the best interests of the entire country in the long run."

HARD TIME DANCE Hillside Inn, Tuesday Night, March 4

CLEMENT'S ORCHESTRA

Come Have a Good Time! H. L. Bertrand, Mgr.

PANCAKE SUPPER ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, TUESDAY, MARCH 4

From 5:00 until 7:30 P. M.

Pillsbury Flour Pancakes - Vermont Maid Maple Syrup Brookfield Sausage - Richelleu Coffee - St. Paul's Apple Pie

SUPPER 35 CENTS

Special Money-Saving Offer on "Wear-Ever"

Aluminum Cooking Utensils

Don't miss this BIG Opportunity

New Colored Handle Fry Pan 10 in. size $1.35

New Double Boiler 1 1/2 qt. size $1.95

And ... for Delicious Hot Roasts prepared the "Wear-Ever" Windsor Kettle 5-qt. size $1.45

These Dealers can supply you from Feb. 27 to March 15th

The Chicago Store

THE OLD HOME TOWN

"It seems to me," he said, "this first year of President Hoover has been a year of fact finding; a year of work on data and blue prints; a year of foundation laying. These are the mark of the engineering mind of President Hoover."

LEADER OF CULT AWAITS SENTENCE

Los Angeles, March 3.—(P)—Mrs. Mary Otis Blackburn, organizer and high priestess of the divine order of the Royal Arm of the Great Eleven, a religious cult, today awaited sentence on eight counts of grand theft.

The woman, whose Concord in the cult was that of "the North Star," was convicted yesterday by a jury which had deliberated since Friday. She was ordered to jail. The penalty under California law is from one to 14 years in the penitentiary for each count.

The grand theft charges grew out of a complaint by Clifford Babney, wealthy oil operator, that the cult leader had milked him out of $40,000. He testified she obtained the money from him to finance the writing of a book to be known as "The Great Sixth Seal," which she told him was being dictated by the Archangels Gabriel and Michael.

WM. ALLEN WHITE MAKES HIT WITH THE HAITIAN FOLK

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, March 3.—(P)—William Allen White, newspaper publisher of Emporia, Kansas, and member of President Hoover's investigation commission here, has excited the entire populace of this capital with an act of his last night. While a parade of Haitian women passed before White, who was standing at the gate of the Hotel Excelsior, where the commission is residing, one of the women, an aged negress dressed in black, stepped in front of him and said: "Please, commissioner, deliver us."

As he spoke she bowed. White grasped her hand, bowed himself and then kissed her hand. "In that moment everyone was quiet. Then there was a roar of wild cheers. Cries of 'long live the commission' and 'long live President Hoover' were heard on all sides. Women leaders cried with happiness and said Emporia Man's act was one of

LYRIC

Tonight and Tuesday

"Vamping Venus"

with

Charlie Murray Louise Fazenda and Thelma Todd

Continuous Showing 2 P. M. to 11 P. M.

Buehler Bros. SPECIALS FOR MONDAY

SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY

- Fresh Meaty Spare Ribs 14c
- Bulk Kraut, quart 9c
- 2 1/2 size Peaches or Apricots 19c
- Pure Fresh Hamburger 15c
- Choice Sirloin Steak 27c
- Baby Beef Liver 12 1/2c

What Others Have For Specials We Sell For Less!

Watch Our Windows

126 South East Avenue Phone 682

SPRING FURS

Let us show you our new line of spring furs. For chokers and collars and cuff sets.

RELIABLE CLEANERS

CLEANING — PRESSING — FUR WORK

279 South Schuyler Avenue Phone 423

the greatest gestures of friendship the Hoover group could have made toward Haiti.

Previously members of the investigation commission had prevented an interruption by the National guards of a demonstration which the Haitians wished to stage in protest at the American occupation and in expression of the hope for restoration of self government.

More than 15,000 citizens of the republic gathered around the monument to the negro revolutionists Jean Jacques Dessalines in the square of Champs De Mars. The demonstration was preceded by a religious service at the church of the Sacred Heart, a "Save Haiti" service organized by the women of Port-Au-Prince.

Mr. White, as the representative of the commission, sat among a thousand women during the ceremony, which brought tears to the eyes of many American visitors. He said, afterward he was deeply moved.

Paris, March 3.—(P)—Andre Tardieu and members of his second cabinet, officially constituted yesterday, went to work today on the ministerial declaration on which they will seek a vote of confidence in the chamber Wednesday.

Given a vote of confidence, M. Tardieu expected to have a French naval delegation back in London, and ready to resume negotiations Thursday. It will consist of M. Tardieu, Aristide Briand, Minister of Marine Dumesnil, Minister of Colonies Pictet, Ambassador De Feltre, and Gustave de Kerguelen.

Eight-horsepower motors have been installed in two gliders in Germany and the craft flown to test certain advantages claimed for tailless airplanes.

WILL SEEK VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Paris, March 3.—(P)—Andre Tardieu and members of his second cabinet, officially constituted yesterday, went to work today on the ministerial declaration on which they will seek a vote of confidence in the chamber Wednesday.

Given a vote of confidence, M. Tardieu expected to have a French naval delegation back in London, and ready to resume negotiations Thursday. It will consist of M. Tardieu, Aristide Briand, Minister of Marine Dumesnil, Minister of Colonies Pictet, Ambassador De Feltre, and Gustave de Kerguelen.

Eight-horsepower motors have been installed in two gliders in Germany and the craft flown to test certain advantages claimed for tailless airplanes.

PAINTING DECORATING AND WALL PAPER HANGING

Your spring and summer work is solicited on the basis of giving the best work and that the price will be only reasonable.

JOSEPH PUTZ

707 North Chicago Ave. PHONE 2094

"The Virginian"

A Paramount Outdoor All Talking

Classic With Gary Cooper Walter Huston Mary Brian Richard Arlen

From the Novel by OWEN WISTER

FOUR DAYS STARTING TODAY

Adults 50c — Children 15c

MAJESTIC

Home of Paramount Pictures

One of the Public Theatres

Billie Dove

Most Beautiful Star on the Screen!

with Edmund Lowe of "Cock-Eyed World" Fame!

Billie's Greatest!

A Hard-Belled Beauty But She Knew How to Love!

"The Painted Angel"

All Talk Comedy

"Clancy at the Bat"

Today

Tuesday

Wednesday

LUNA

Adults 20 Children 10c